

Competencies

- C1: Perform comprehensive patient histories and physical examinations
- C2: Formulate accurate differential diagnoses based on clinical findings
- C3: Order and interpret appropriate diagnostic studies
- C4: Develop evidence-based treatment plans in collaboration with supervising physicians
- C5: Demonstrate proficiency in common clinical procedures and technical skills
- C6: Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior in all clinical interactions
- C7: Engage in self-directed learning and reflective practice
- C8: Recognize personal limitations and seek appropriate consultation
- C9: Maintain patient confidentiality and adhere to HIPAA regulations
- C10: Communicate effectively with physicians, nurses, and other healthcare professionals
- C11: Understand and respect the roles of various healthcare team members
- C12: Provide culturally sensitive care to patients from diverse backgrounds
- C13: Identify social determinants of health affecting patient outcomes
- C14: Critically appraise medical literature and research studies
- C15: Apply evidence-based medicine principles to clinical decision-making